REED WEBSTER.

Renominated For Congress
By Maine Republicans
Today at Alfred.

Many People Were Present
at the Demonstration
Which Followed.

Speech of the Candidate in Accepting the Proffered Honor.

Alfred, Me., July 29.—This quiet country seat was the scene today of the opening of the Republican national campaign of 1896. People from all the country around about came to town to listen to a speech by the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, on the occasion of his nomination for representative in congress by the First district Republican convention. There were present many people from nearly all sections of New Hampshire and Massachusetts, giving the occasion something of the character of an inter-state demonstration. In accepting the nomination to congress, which was unanimously given, Mr. Reed delivered a lengthy speech.

Mr. Reed addressed the large gathering as follows: "If I were going to give good advice to the people of the whole United States, I should take this time to do it. Just now there is a great deal of north and south in the air, and something is really needed to blow it away to every eye how much it is the result of the temporary breeze which stills at nightfall and how little there is of that heavy, grand swell which shows the elementary forces at work. How very sudden all this rush and stir in action. Two months ago no man of any standing would have risked his reputation as a Republican upon such a question. Four years ago the trial of the opposition under the leadership of the best and truest leader has left no shadow of question as to public duty.

"Two months have slipped away—hardly time to open a strawberry, much less a system of thought—and there are those who tell us that all things have changed, that these very men who were being arrayed for descent, burial and burial the ornaments of the grave and transfigured by some new arrangement of crowns and robes, lead to a new happiness, and even repair all the damage that has been wrought. Now, this may be so, but it does not seem probable. Human nature is not so easily changed. It is those who have blundered with the unsuspicious, whose condemnation is at hand, even if we gain by the change, others of us who were Republicans, cheerfully but with some excitement, for we know how hard the task must be to rebuild out of the ruins of the last four years the state mansions of national happiness, prosperity and self-respect, wherein our people lived until that unfortunate election of 1892.

"The republic is the colony of silver, hardly time to open a strawberry, much less a system of thought—and there are those who tell us that all things have changed, that these very men who were being arrayed for descent, burial and burial the ornaments of the grave and transfigured by some new arrangement of crowns and robes, lead to a new happiness, and even repair all the damage that has been wrought. ## FUSION

Secretary of the Navy Restores Him to Duty.

Washington, July 29.—The secretary of the navy, in the sentence of dismissal imposed by the court martial held at Mare Island, California, recently upon Passed Assistant Paymaster Webster, lately attached to the Yorktown in the China station. The officer was accused of having retained a bond exacted from his pay clerk, W. J. Tobin, after having disbursed the clerk. The secretary finds that there were grave irregularities in the proceedings of the court, which convicted the officer and moreover is inclined to the belief, based principally upon the testimony of Chief Engineer Webster, that the money amounting to $2,000 placed in the paymaster's hands by Tobin's mother, was principally a loan and not a bond. For these reasons he rescinds the findings of the court and restores Webster to duty, but he takes occasion to say that the transaction in any sense in which it may be viewed, is disgraceful to Paymaster Webster and to the navy, and in so doing is a violation of the statute prohibiting any officer to take money for procuring an appointment. It was scandalous in any case, says the secretary, that Webster should fall to pay back after the termination of Tobin's service the money received by him in consideration of his appointment as clerk, and should be for any great length of time held in the failure of the department may be expected to proceed further in this matter.

The consul general has reported that so far he has been unable to obtain any information of the matter after inquiry in Havana.

Ex-Senator Samuel Maxwell was selected on the third ballot as the choice of the conference. It was urged by many delegates that the extreme age of Mr. Maxwell, who is now in his sixties, was a disadvantage. Three committees of three of each party were appointed to notify the Democrats, Populists and Prohibitionists of the action of the conference.

Enthusiastic Populist State Convention at Fargo Now Being Held.

A Red Hot Fight is Predicted in the Coming Election.

St. Paul, July 29.—A Fargo, N. D., special to the Dispatch says: The Populist state convention assembled at 10 o'clock this morning with a large and enthusiastic attendance. D. Walcott of Hope, was chosen temporary chairman, and Elnay Grant of Fargo, and W. E. Patterson, of Forman, were chosen secretaries. After appointing the usual committees several speakers addressed the convention while the convention awaited the reports of committees.

The joint committee appointed to confer with the Democrats at Grand Forks July 23 was the first to report. They reported that adjournment had been taken at that date because of unfavorable results. Later they met here according to agreement and found the Democrats willing to be eminently fair in arrangements and all willing to work together harmoniously. They had agreed on the leading officers of the fusion ticket and it only remained for an adjustment of some minor details. They asked for further time and were given till 3 o'clock to make a full report.

There is no doubt whatever that fusion will be carried through. While the joint committee refuse to give details prior to their report, the convention is asserted the Democrats will be succeeded the congressmen, the Populists govern and after that every alternate office will be divided. This may be changed, but the agreement at 1 o'clock. The fusion ticket insures one of the hottest fights ever had in the state. There is no definite slate and will not yet be arranged what office each side will get.

MAY BE MURDER.

Arthur Sadler Found With a Fractured Skull.

St. Paul, July 29.—Shortly before midnight last night Arthur Sadler, about 40 years of age and supposed to reside in Minneapolis, was found lying between the Burlington railroad tracks near the fish hatchery. He was unconscious and was wounded in the head. It is thought his skull is fractured so badly that there is little hope for his recovery. It seems to be doubtful if the man was run into by a train, as at first supposed, as there are two other bruises on the man's body. The physicians at the hospital are not prepared to say that the fractures of the skull were caused by the man being struck upon the head with some blunt instrument and then placed between the tracks.

REPUBLICAN POW WOK.

Congressional Nominees and Chairmen in St. Paul.

St. Paul, July 29.—The Republican congressional nominees held another meeting at the state central committee room this morning, and all the chairman of congressional committees were present, except Lovjoy of the Fifth, and Daugherty of the Sixth district. At the conference held last week, only the candidates themselves were present, and few conclusions were reached. This time, in addition to the six nominees, there were present Chairman Daugherty of the First district, Benedict of the Second, Pierce of the Third, and Adams of the Seventh. The candidates were in session with the committee members for several hours, mapping out the campaign in the several districts throughout the state.

HANGED HIMSELF.

Strange Suicide of a Boston Journalist.

New York, July 29.—Roman J. Zubof, claiming to be a journalist from Boston, and a Russian count, committed suicide in a cell of a police station here today. Zubof, who was about 25 years of age, was arrested as he was about to sail for Europe on board the American liner New York. The allegation being that he owed a hotel bill of $200. He pleaded with the complainant to discharge the charge, as it was very important that he should go to Europe. The officer who served the warrant would not listen to talk of compromise, saying the case was then out of the hotel keeper's hands, and he took Zubof to the station, where he was locked up. Soon afterwards Zubof was found dead, having hanged himself with his pocket handkerchief.

GRAY CASE

Continuation of the Hearing Yesterday and This Morning.

Charlie Gray Underwent a Lengthy Cross Examination Today.

S. T. Harrison Testified as to the Handwriting of R. A. Gray.

It was a source of some surprise to those attending the Gray hearing yesterday that after reading the deposition of Durham F. Keene, of Chicago, and placing Charlie Gray on the stand to answer a few questions which seemed of comparatively little importance in the case, the representatives of the Bradley-Gray heirs rested their case. The Chicago contestants enter no objection to the appointment of the administrator desired by the Duluth heirs, and as this action is only for the appointment of an administrator, were not forced to disclose their case. One of the attorneys representing Mrs. Bradley-Gray said that all that he and his clients desire is that the administrator take charge of the estate with due notice of their claim.

From what evidence they introduced it is evident that the line of proof which the Chicago contestants expect to follow is that Gray had recognized Charlie Gray as his legitimate son, had contributed to his support and education, and had openly acknowledged the boy as his son. Mrs. R. A. Gray, Gray's mother, who died about twelve years ago, and as the boy Charlie Gray is 18 years of age it is inferred that the proof of Gray's recognition of his legitimacy will be used as a strong argument in support of the woman's claim that she was married to Gray after the death of his former wife.

Yesterday, at the close of the Bradley-Gray case, Mr. Billson, on behalf of the Duluth heirs, placed Robert A. Louden on the stand. This witness had been very intimate with Mr. Gray during the lifetime of the latter. He is also the brother of the late Mrs. Gray. Louden claimed to have been written to by Kathryn Western by Gray, and said that he did not believe it was in Gray's handwriting. He had, however, received many letters from Gray and was well acquainted with his handwriting. Mr. Billson asked if Gray had ever said anything to Louden about getting married. There was a vigorous objection to the introduction of this testimony, but it was at last taken under advisement, to be ruled out today if Mr. Greene could produce authorities to show that it is inadmissible.

Mr. Louden said that Gray had on several occasions spoken about getting married. The last occurrence of the kind had been just previous to his Eastern trip. He had been in the city on business and he felt inclined to marry and settle down in a good home. There was a thought in the mind of the St. Louis attorney that Gray had said that this woman lived in Boston. It had been either there or in some place near it.

On cross-examination Mr. Louden denied that he had told J. C. Bullitt two weeks or more ago that the late Mrs. Gray had never spoken to him about being married.

Mr. Louden asked me if I had ever heard Gray mention Miss Western as his wife and I answered that I had not. Questioned by Sullivan, Louden admitted that Gray had spoken to him about a boy in Chicago whom he had known since childhood. Louden had asked if it were his boy Gray had replied that the boy's mother said that it was Mr. Gray's boy.

Mr. Louden said that he had spoken of receiving letters from him, and had said that he would leave him somewhere in his mind.

In reply to a question by Mr. Billson, Louden said that he had once had a talk with Gray's mother, and that she had told him that she had had a short time after witness became acquainted with Gray.

Charlie Gray was taken sick on West Michigan street, at the corner of Superior street, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, and died a few minutes afterwards in the city of St. Louis. He was a well-known man in the city, and his death was a great loss to the community.

At the opening of the hearing this morning, the question of the boy's question might be answered by the witness. The young man asserted that his mother had never told him that she was married to anyone else than Gray.

He testified relative to his residence with his mother at different houses in Chicago. While living on Armatage avenue he had seen his father once at the Palmer house, where he had gone with his mother. On another occasion he and his mother had seen Gray at the Palmer house, and once they had met him at the Great Northern hotel. The latter meeting he was not certain about, but thought that it occurred in 1891. While living in Keene's flats in 1895 he had seen his father three or four times. Twice he had gone to the Palmer house and once he had seen Gray at the American college of dental surgery, where Gray paid his son's tuition. Witness had seen his father at the Great Northern hotel a month before Gray left for Boston. On only two occasions had Gray come to the house to see Charlie and his mother.

Mr. Billson went carefully over every word given by the witness during the hearing and his mother had occupied certain homes in Chicago. The boy's statement of yesterday that Gray and Mrs. Olive Bradley-Gray had lived together as husband and wife.

Mr. Billson asked where Mrs. Gray was at the present time; whether she was in the city or had been here during the past few days. Witness replied that he did not know. Charlie said that his mother had lived at Ogden, Wis., for a year, where she had kept house for Mrs. G. B. Holmes.

Mr. Billson attempted to secure an account of the conversation which took place at Mr. Keene's office, relative to the deposition read yesterday, but upon objection by Mr. Sullivan this course of questioning was abandoned.

Mr. Hollenback took up the cross-examination, asking Charlie's age when he left Duluth and whether he had any recollection of events which happened before that event.

IT IS OUT

Reason Why John H. Norton Withdrew From the County Fight.

He Is Slated to Be One of the Legislative Candidates.

W. P. Mars, of Virginia, and C. M. Johanson May Be the Others.

When John H. Norton withdrew from the race for the nomination for county attorney a few days ago and left Mr. Arbury a clear field there was great surprise on all sides. What had struck John was the great question, but it remained a mystery, for John said nothing. The whole thing looked out today, however. It is pretty generally known that the mining corporations will name the candidates of the Republican party for the legislature. The two big syndicates may differ on matters of ore sales, but on this they agree. It now seems that it has occurred to them that the meetings of the St. Louis County Republican club, the West Duluth club and similar organizations afford too limited a field for the display of their remarkable and strikingly original style of oratory with which John H. has been gifted. They therefore propose to send him to the legislature. He was easily persuaded that this would be a better place for him, and hence the withdrawal.

Along with the name of Mr. Norton that of W. P. Mars, of Virginia, is mentioned as the one to be approved by the powers that rule. Dr. Darns, of Eveleth, is said to be not acceptable. Carl M. Johanson is mentioned as the third. Johanson, it is said, will be the choice of the Sargent men for chairman of the convention.

The Democratic county committee will meet tomorrow evening to select a date for the county convention which will nominate county officers.

The delegates elected at Elly last evening were: R. Vail, O. D. Ellstrom, J. Norberg, H. Sturdevant, J. Skala, H. C. Kelly and James Carrey. In the town of Morse, S. P. Ireland was chosen as the delegate.

BRYAN AND TOWNE CLUBS. E. C. Gidley and S. D. Allen will address the Bryan and Towne club at the fire hall, West Duluth, tonight.

A Bryan and Towne club will be formed at Duluth Heights Tuesday next, at which L. C. Harris, S. T. Harrison and J. W. Bull will speak.

A Bryan and Towne club will be formed at New Duluth on a date not yet determined, but in the course of a week. Mr. Gray's report of the conversation was not changed on cross-examination. Witnesses denied that she had ever expressed her belief in the woman's story, nor had she ever heard her husband, Joshua Gray, state that he believed her statement.

S. T. Harrison was the next witness for the heirs. His testimony was relative to Mr. Gray's handwriting. Two letters which Mr. Harrison knew to have been written by Mr. Gray were introduced in evidence. One was a letter to his wife, which has figured so largely in the Western case, was shown to him. He said that he did not think it was in Mr. Gray's handwriting. He also testified that the handwriting of the letter which he had seen of another letter was not Mr. Gray's.

The question was extended to 12:30 for the cross-examination by Mr. Hollenback.

William Harrison was placed upon the stand immediately after the noon recess. His testimony was of a nature similar to that given by S. T. Harrison. He was not prepared to say absolutely that the "dear wife" letter or the pencil memoranda were not in Mr. Gray's handwriting, but he said that he would not accept them as genuine where there was any responsibility involved. His opinion was based on the general appearance of the letters and not on any peculiarity of the handwriting.

A Sudden Death. Henry Hansen, a brother of Chief of Police Hansen, was taken sick on West Michigan street, at the corner of Superior street, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, and died a few minutes afterwards in the city of St. Louis. He was a well-known man in the city, and his death was a great loss to the community.

At the opening of the hearing this morning, the question of the boy's question might be answered by the witness. The young man asserted that his mother had never told him that she was married to anyone else than Gray.

Witness had seen his father at the Great Northern hotel a month before Gray left for Boston. On only two occasions had Gray come to the house to see Charlie and his mother.

Mr. Billson went carefully over every word given by the witness during the hearing and his mother had occupied certain homes in Chicago. The boy's statement of yesterday that Gray and Mrs. Olive Bradley-Gray had lived together as husband and wife.

Mr. Billson asked where Mrs. Gray was at the present time; whether she was in the city or had been here during the past few days. Witness replied that he did not know. Charlie said that his mother had lived at Ogden, Wis., for a year, where she had kept house for Mrs. G. B. Holmes.

Mr. Billson attempted to secure an account of the conversation which took place at Mr. Keene's office, relative to the deposition read yesterday, but upon objection by Mr. Sullivan this course of questioning was abandoned.

Mr. Hollenback took up the cross-examination, asking Charlie's age when he left Duluth and whether he had any recollection of events which happened before that event.

The witness said that he was about 6 years of age when he moved from this city. He remembered living in the Bunnell block and had a faint recollection of having lived in three other places. One of these was a cottage with trees around it, but he could not remember where it was. He had come on a boat and he and his mother had walked from the boat to the cottage. One of the other places had been on an avenue running at right angles to Superior street, but he could not name the avenue. He remembered that once at this place his father had frightened him with a fire cracker, and he had bought six papers, sold three, and had hidden the rest under a water barrel. At one time a gentleman had bought him some clothing and his father had forced him to return it.

Mr. Hollenback then changed his method. He asked when Charlie first learned that his mother wrote her name Mrs. Olive Bradley-Gray. Witness could not tell.

"Did you ever know a Mr. Bradley in Duluth?"

"Did you ever hear your mother speak of Mr. Harry Bradley?"

Charlie testified that he had sometimes heard his mother addressed as Mrs. Bradley. Some of her acquaintances called her Mrs. Bradley, some Mrs. Gray and some Mrs. Bradley-Gray. His mother told him that the reason she was addressed as Mrs. Bradley was that there was some kind of an agreement of Durham F. Keene, of Chicago, and placing Charlie Gray on the stand to answer a few questions which seemed of comparatively little importance in the case, the representatives of the Bradley-Gray heirs rested their case. The Chicago contestants enter no objection to the appointment of the administrator desired by the Duluth heirs, and as this action is only for the appointment of an administrator, were not forced to disclose their case. One of the attorneys representing Mrs. Bradley-Gray said that all that he and his clients desire is that the administrator take charge of the estate with due notice of their claim.

From what evidence they introduced it is evident that the line of proof which the Chicago contestants expect to follow is that Gray had recognized Charlie Gray as his legitimate son, had contributed to his support and education, and had openly acknowledged the boy as his son. Mrs. R. A. Gray, Gray's mother, who died about twelve years ago, and as the boy Charlie Gray is 18 years of age it is inferred that the proof of Gray's recognition of his legitimacy will be used as a strong argument in support of the woman's claim that she was married to Gray after the death of his former wife.

Yesterday, at the close of the Bradley-Gray case, Mr. Billson, on behalf of the Duluth heirs, placed Robert A. Louden on the stand. This witness had been very intimate with Mr. Gray during the lifetime of the latter. He is also the brother of the late Mrs. Gray. Louden claimed to have been written to by Kathryn Western by Gray, and said that he did not believe it was in Gray's handwriting. He had, however, received many letters from Gray and was well acquainted with his handwriting. Mr. Billson asked if Gray had ever said anything to Louden about getting married. There was a vigorous objection to the introduction of this testimony, but it was at last taken under advisement, to be ruled out today if Mr. Greene could produce authorities to show that it is inadmissible.

Mr. Louden said that Gray had on several occasions spoken about getting married. The last occurrence of the kind had been just previous to his Eastern trip. He had been in the city on business and he felt inclined to marry and settle down in a good home. There was a thought in the mind of the St. Louis attorney that Gray had said that this woman lived in Boston. It had been either there or in some place near it.

STAGE ROBBER CAUGHT.
Is a Son of a Cripple Creek
Merchant

Denver, Col., July 30.—It has been learned that one of the robbers of the stage coach near Cripple Creek, July 23, was arrested last Monday at the Union depot here and has since been in jail at Colorado Springs under the name of Edward Burbank. News of the arrest has been kept quiet, as the police have been looking for his two accomplices.

It is said that Burbank, who is 20 years old, and a son of a prominent Cripple Creek merchant, has confessed. Some of the booty was found in the back of his father's house on Champa street, where Burbank told the officers: it had been buried.

A BEER WAR.
Which Will Be Fought Out
in Courts.
Kansas City, Mo., July 20.—It is said upon excellent authority that District

Attorney John H. Walker will in a few days institute proceedings in the federal court against the brewers of Chicago, which has existed here for some time past. The brewers will be charged with conspiracy to monopolize the traffic in beer in Kansas City.

A. S. Van Valkenburg has been retained by the local retail liquor dealers to assist Walker by furnishing him with information against the brewers. The threat of a Chicago brewer to enter the market and smash the combine by selling beer at $1 a barrel has driven a committee of the brewers to Chicago with threats to sell beer in Chicago at $1 a barrel or lower.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Thomas Carter, of Tucson, Ariz., was knocked out in a 32-round contest with Robert Thompson at Salt Lake Tuesday night, by a terrific blow on the chin, and never regained consciousness and died at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Thompson is under arrest. Both were colored men. There is talk of taking action against the athletic commission.

The department of state has been advised by General Lee at Havana under date of July 21 that the names of an American citizen arrested in Manzanillo, district of Santiago de Cuba, in the month of April, this year and Manuel Romagosa, who is an American citizen residing in the same province, have been officially notified of their unconditional release from prison.

The Duquesne, Ohio, deposit bank closed its doors yesterday and assigned to E. M. Bailly, of New Philadelphia, Ohio. It is believed the liabilities will reach $100,000, assets about $50,000. The feeling against the bank is very bitter as it is generally known that it accepted deposits Tuesday night after business hours.

At Lima, Ohio, Joseph Grebler, of Minneapolis, one of the crack bicycle circuit was killed yesterday. Griebler was probably overcome by the heat, for he was not wearing a hat, and the crowd was so thick that he could not get away. He was thrown upon a fence, receiving injuries which resulted in his death a half hour later. Griebler was in the lead in the half mile open race at the time the accident occurred.

Cripple Creek's marshal, Jim Marshall, is reported to have made regular assessments in the gambling fraternity there and that respectable and law abiding citizens were thrown in jail, tortured and fined without a pretense of authority. The event of the day at the Halifax regatta yesterday was the professional double scull for the world's championship, eight miles with a turn, in which Gaudaur and Rogers were the winners by fifteen lengths in 18:43½. The boats starting were: Gaudaur and Barry, of Ontario; Gaudaur and Rogers, of Atherly, Ont.; and Durnan and Hackett, of Toronto and Rat. The A. C. S. scull was also a thrilling event. The winner, S. D. Sturgis, of Fortness Monroe, and Miss Bertha Tracy Bement, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. C. Bement, took place at 7 o'clock at St. Clement's Episcopal church, Bishop Gil-

The 57-year-old woman, an unidentified man whose name is supposed to be Tobias Lange. The 12-year-old boy was taken to the hospital. There were three deaths from heat in the city yesterday, and two in Washington.

THE ACTUAL SITUATION.

A meeting of the Republican candidates for congress from this state was held at St. Paul yesterday. In a report
given by one of the Twin City men
the following appears: "Judge Morris
said that silver was a dead issue in Duluth. It had died more suddenly than it had arisen. People were beginning to refuse to listen to anything more about the silver issue; they were for sound money, almost to a man. 'From the business man and banker to the dock-walker,' said the judge, 'they want no cheap money. Duluth people pay their debts. They do not believe in repudiation, either municipally, as individuals, or as a nation.' The judge predicted that sound money would sweep the silver heretics out of the district the frost drives out yellow fever germs."

If Judge Morris gave such a report to the campaign managers of the situation here, he did not treat them fairly,
because he grossly misrepresented the facts. Never has the cause of bimetallism made such a headway in Duluth
and in other parts of the state as it is making today. The silver sentiment is stronger here than it ever was. It is very much stronger in the rest of the district than it was three months ago, and it will continue to gain in strength until election day.
Even the great majority of those who voted at the Republican primaries the other night refused to sign the membership roll of the McKinley and Morris
club, although they were besought to do
so. The chief reason assigned for refusing was that they intended to vote
for Mr. Towner—which must be encouraging, indeed, to Judge Morris in his already hopeless campaign.

The judge is quoted as saying that the people refuse to listen to anything more about the silver issue. This is not correct. There never was a time when the people were more eager to discuss the money question than they are now. The people are thinking and they are studying this question. The great demand at the public library for all the books dealing with the subject is proof of this fact. So great is the demand that it has been necessary to order a half dozen copies of all the books in the library on this subject.

Judge Morris is correct in saying that Duluth people do not believe in repuda-tion. They never did believe in repuda-tion of the municipal, state or national debts, and in this respect they have an advantage over the Republican candidates for congress who were a leading member of the party led by Billy Machone men, of whom Page Morris was one, being a candidate for congress
against the present Senator Daniel

and being overwhelmingly defeated,
did not try to conceal that their purpose was repudiation of a large portion of the state debt. No, the people of Duluth do not believe in repudiation of private or public debts. They believe in the only sound money—gold and silver coined freely at a fixed ratio and given equal rights and privileges and debt-paying power, as they possessed
previous to 1873.

ANSWERS TO GOLD MEN.

The able and convincing address delivered at St. Louis by William P. St. John,
the wealthy practical banker, who resigned the presidency of the Mercantile National bank of New York, rather than remain silent at this crisis, deals
terse with some of the common errors on the currency question. Inasmuch as the editorial columns of the gold standard press are filled with catchwords, the address of Mr. St. John has been reprinted in the same form
to offset the mass of misleading matter presented in these papers. Here it is:

Q. What is the condition of the country? A. The fountain head of our prosperity has run dry. Our farmers all over the country have endured the depression in prices until they get about 85 or 90 per cent of the value of their crops, and the like. Their credit is exhausted at their country stores.
The country store ceases to order from the city merchant, the city merchant
reduces his demand upon the manufacturer. Manufacturers are curtailed.
The consequence is that employees and
all elements of labor are being discharged, and wages are lowered to those who continue in employment. The suffering of the farmers, who constitute nearly one-half of our population, is
thus enforced upon the city merchant,
the manufacturer and all forms of labor. These combined elements constitute the overwhelming majority of voters. Their intelligent conclusion will be felt when expressed at the polls. The banker also is without prosperity unless prosperity is general throughout the United States. He must learn to distinguish between cheap money and
money commanding a low rate of interest.

Q. What is the cause, in brief, of all this? A. The increase in the number of dollars when dollars are confined to gold is not sufficiently rapid
to meet the growth of our exchanges.
The consequence is a growing value
of dollars or a diminishing value of everything else expressed in dollars; which is to say, a tendency toward constantly declining prices.

Q. It is said that the free coinage of silver would reduce us to the condition of Mexico? A. I answer that question by saying, first, that Mexico is conspicuously prosperous at home. Her increase in manufactures, railway
earnings and the like in recent years
is phenomenal. Second, Mexico is no retrograde to the United States, for the reason that she has a foreign trade
indebtedness of about $20,000,000 annually in excess of the value of her exports of cotton, sugar, coffee, hides and the like, which must be paid for in the surplus product of her mines. Her silver,
therefore, goes abroad as merchandise,
and at a valuation fixed by the outside world. The United States, on the other hand, is a nation of 70,000,000 of people,
scattered over a territory seventeen
times the area of France. A single one of our railway systems, the Erie, exceeds the aggregate railway mileage of all Mexico. We offer an employment for money to an aggregate greater than
the world's silver will furnish us.
Hence our silver money at home and abroad, will be valued as the money of the United States.

Q. But the opposition say that Europe will flood our mints in the event of free coinage? A. The opposition threatens us with a flood of Europe's silver
upon our reopening mints. We answer that Europe has no silver but her silver money. Her silver money values silver at from 3 to 7 cents on the dollar higher than ours. Hence the European merchant or banker must sacrifice from 3
to 7 per cent of his full legal tender
money in order to receive it at our mints. Europe's silverware, like America's silverware, carries in it the additional value of labor and the manu-
facture's profit.

They threaten us with a flood of silver
from the far east. We answer that the course of silver is invariably eastward,
and we use with a flood of silver from India is a perpetual sink of silver, absorbing it, never to return, by from $30, 000,000 to $60,000,000 worth every year.
And India's absorption of silver will be enlarged by the steadiness of price for silver fixed by our reopened mints.

Q. But the gold standard people say that there will be a sudden retirement
of $300,000,000 gold, with the accompanying panic, causing contraction and commercial disaster unparalleled? A.
I answer that our total stock of gold,
other than about $10,000,000 of $15,000,000
circulating on the Pacific coast, is already in retirement. Practically all our gold is in the United States treasury or held by banks. The gold in the treasury will remain there if the secretary
avails of his option to redeem United States notes in silver. The gold in the banks constitutes the quiet and undisturbed portion of their reserves against their liabilities. It will continue to do
money duty as such reserves after free coinage of silver is enacted. Hence a premium on it will not contract the currency. The utmost possible contraction

of the currency will be the few millions circulating on the Pacific coast, and
this will be retired but slowly.

Q. Threats of disaster have been heard before. Where they verified? A. No. A similar threat of a flight of gold was made for the Bland act of 1878. President Hayes was urged to veto it, but congress passed it over the veto. Instead of a flight of gold as had been predicted, we gained by importation $1,000, 000 the first year, $70,000,000 the next and $50,000,000 the third year. During the twelve years that the act was on the statute book we gained $221,000,000 of foreign gold. Instead of the destruction of our credit, as had been predicted, the United States 4 per cent loan,
which stood at 101 on the day of the enactment, sold at 120 per cent within three years, and at 130 per cent subsequently. Instead of defeating the resumption of specie payments on Jan. 1
of the following year, the 24,000,000 silver dollars which were coined in 1878 and circulated by means of the silver certificates, reduced the demand upon the government for gold. Hence the threat of disaster now is without historic foundation.

What will follow free coinage from a banker's point of view? A. It will follow the reopening of our mints
to silver: The gold already in the treasury will remain there, if common sense
dictates the treasury management; that is, if the treasurer exercises the option
to redeem United States notes in silver.
A premium on gold will not occasion a contraction of the currency, bank boards
of gold continuing to serve as a portion
of bank reserves against bank liabilities. A premium on gold will tend to increase our exports by causing a higher rate of foreign exchange, that is to say, by yielding a larger net return
in dollars on the sale of bills of exchange
with which to pay for goods imported.
Q. What will be the gains to home industry? A. The tendency of increasing our exports and decreasing our imports will be, first, to set our spindles
running, swell the number of paid operatives, increase their wages, thereby adding to the number and paying capacity of consumers, and thus enlarge our home market for all home products, including manufactures, with prosperity in general as the result assured. The tendency of increasing our exports and decreasing our imports will be, second,
to establish a credit balance of trade for the United States. A credit balance of trade means that Europe has become our debtor, and must settle with us in money. Europe's silver money is over-
valued in her gold, compared with ours,
by from 3 to 7 cents on the dollar. The European merchant or banker will therefore make his trade settlements
with us in gold, more profitably by from 3 to 7 per cent than in his silver.

With the instant that European trade settlements with
parity for our gold and silver money
is established in the markets of the world. Therewith the 37 1/2 grains of pure silver in our silver dollar and the 33 1/2 grains of gold in our gold dollar
become of exactly equal worth as bullion in New York.

THE ONLY ISSUE.

According to a New York dispatch, Marcus A. Hanna, the chairman of the Republican national committee, does not consider a high protective tariff the "great issue" in this campaign. He considers the issue to be "sound finances and a protective tariff." "That is the way I should define it," said
Chairman Hanna to a New York Herald
representative at the Waldorf hotel, "and when I say a protective tariff I do not mean a high protective tariff by any means—a duty on the goods of the world. I mean a tariff on the goods of other nations to bring in the government
enough revenue to pay its expenses and bring us back to the prosperity of 1892."

Inasmuch as the platform upon which
Mr. Bryan stands declares for a tariff that will produce sufficient revenue to pay the government's expenses, and as Mr. Hanna does not regard the Republican platform as demanding anything more, the tariff question is entirely eliminated from consideration in this campaign. There is no other question that claims much attention outside of the money question, and thus
the whole campaign is narrowed down
to the one great issue—bimetalism versus the single gold standard.

The Republican platform declares for the gold standard only. Henry Claws,
the New York banker, says in his last circular that Wall street expects that McKinley's election would mean establish the gold standard upon a permanent basis, and as Wall street declares the financial plank of the St. Louis platform no one can dispute the interpretation thus put upon it. As has been previously stated, the reference to an international agreement is intended only as a sop to Republican bimetallists.

On the other hand, the Chicago platform upon which Mr. Bryan stands
denounces the maintenance of the single gold standard and declares in favor of the restoration of bimetalism as it existed in this country prior to the demonetization act of 1873, the free and
unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio
of 16 to 1, with full debt-paying power.

Some of the gold advocates are again
denying that the demonetization of silver was sneaked through congress. One of them revises Senator Sherman's thin explanation and puts it in these words:
"The Congressional Record shows that it (the act of 1873) was in the senate
more than once, in the house at least

once, was printed by order of congress
thirteen times, was considered in the committees of both houses during five different sessions, and the debates on it occupy 144 columns of the Congressional Globe."
None of this discussion, though, was about the demonetization of silver.
Everybody familiar with legislation,
and especially the Cincinnati Enquirer, knows
what a perfunctory thing the reading of a bill is. The particular part of the measure now complained of as a crime
was overlooked by all except those who sneaked it into the bill, and who, of course, did not call attention to it.

The St. Paul Globe says: "John Lind

SHOOTING

The Fourth Annual Tournament of the Duluth Central Gun Club.

Open to All Trap Shooters and Many Competitors Are Expected.

To Be Held on Lake Shore at Thirty-First Avenue East.

On Aug. 12 and 14, at the new range at Thirty-first avenue east and London road, the Central Gun club will hold its fourth annual tournament, open to all trap shooters. No tournament has yet been given by the club which has attracted attention in all parts of the country, and trap shooters from all sections of the United States and some from Canada have contended against the local marksmen. To this extent all the tournaments have been very successful, but owing to the distance from town of the Spirit Lake grounds, the attendance of spectators has never been very large.

With the grounds so near the city as the new range, the event will this year attract more attention locally than ever before, and the breaking of the blue rocks will probably be in the presence of large and enthusiastic crowds.

The program for the tournament has been completed, and includes sixteen events. There are eight events scheduled for each day. The first day's program is as follows: Ten birds, known angles; 15 birds, unknown; 15 known; 15 unknown; 20 known, merchandise shoot; 15 unknown; 25 known; 10 unknown.

The second day's events will be: Ten unknown; 15 known; 15 unknown; 15 known; 20 unknown; 25 known; club rules; 10 known; 15 known. First for each day, 125 birds.

The special rules adopted to govern the conduct of the tournament and suggestions made by the club to those taking part in the events are as follows:

Transportation will be furnished for guns and shells from the street cars to grounds.

Loaded shells will be kept at the grounds for those who desire them.

Shooting will commence each morning at 8:30 o'clock. The high gun will take choice in general averages, and in case of ties a decision will be reached by lot for first choice.

It will aid the management if shooters will enter events for all days.

Shooters to be eligible to averages must enter all regular events.

Professionals will be equalized by handicaps.

Trappers will be on the grounds the day before the tournament for all those wishing practice.

American association rules will govern, except that 12-gauge guns may use 14-gauge shot, and all guns at 10-yards' range.

Winners of first money will be handicapped two yards in next regular event. Twenty yards limit will be observed.

Prizes aggregating about $100 have been donated for the merchandise shoot.

The list of average prizes for the tournament is as follows: First prize, $50, and includes for first average a Remington ejector valued at $75; for the second a C. L. Smith ejector of the same value; for the third a Winchester repeating shot gun valued at $62.50; for the fourth a LeFever hammer of $50 value.

The new grounds are on the lake shore, and the marksmen firing from the lake shore will have a perfectly clear background for the birds.

Health Notice!

The water furnished by the Duluth Gas & Water Company is not wholesome. It must be boiled before being used.

W. W. ROUTH, M. D., Health Officer.

Dated, July 30, 1896.

The Municipal Court.

In the municipal court, the case against Catherine Lavour for criminal slander, in which Florence Hopkins was complainant, was dismissed on defendant's motion on the ground that the complaint failed to state a cause of action. The case against Mrs. DeCrouchy, who was charged with running an unlicensed employment agency, was dismissed; the defendant having procured a discharge.

Chris Bunn and J. O. Lot, drunks, were sent up for ten days. C. E. Peterson, arraigned on a charge of drunkenness, was allowed to go on condition that he make use at once of a railroad ticket he had in his possession.

Will Favor Lind.

The silver men claim they are sure of carrying them. So far St. Louis county is concerned it will favor the nomination of John Lind for governor.

Coerced Into Signing.

The membership of the McKinley-Mercer club was boomed up among the elevators in great style. At one of the elevators, the men were all called in to sign the roll, it being claimed that the sign they need not come to work the next day. The signers were quite numerous. One man to give the club an extra boost, put down the name of his dog.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25 cents a bottle.

A. F. HAMMOND RESIGNS.

Retires From Management of the News-Tribune.

A. F. Hammond, manager of the News Tribune, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at the close of the present month, and will be succeeded by Emil Schmid, who was publisher of the Commonwealth which suspended several months ago. Mr. Hammond has been connected with the News Tribune for many years, first as cashier and later as general manager, and he has hosts of friends who will hope that the severance of his relations with the morning paper will not result in his departure from Duluth. Under his management, the News Tribune was greatly improved, and took rank as the best morning paper in Minnesota outside of the Twin Cities. The Herald wishes him abundant success in whatever he may undertake.

SAM'S TWO HUNDRED.

Bruce Campbell is Accused of Taking it.

Bruce Campbell was employed as tender in Sam Atkinson's saloon, 205 West Superior street, on Tuesday night. At that time he disappeared and $200 of Sam's cash is claimed to have gone with him. The matter was not reported to the police until 1 o'clock yesterday. The wires were kept hot from that time until this noon, when the detective located Campbell at Melrose, Minn., where he was arrested on a message from here. When apprehended, Campbell was in company with a woman with whom he had been living in this city. The pair had left Tuesday evening on the 1:30 o'clock Great Northern train and some directly to Melrose. A duty sheriff will leave this evening to bring Campbell back.

The president cites the decision of the supreme court in the Wilbur case concerning the statutes relative to military expeditions, contrabands and the extension of aid by furnishing transportation in order that citizens may not be misled as to the meaning of the neutrality laws.

McKinley or Bryan?

One man says, if McKinley is elected the working men will have two suits of clothes where he has one now. Will he wear one over the other, or stay up nights to get more wear? Another man says, if Bryan is elected, and we get free silver every man will have twice as much money as he has now. Will he be willing to pay twice as much as he does now for his clothes? Another man says, if we get free silver our dollars will be worth only 50c. Good gracious! They don't expect us to sell goods the way we do now, only get half as much money, do they? If any man can show us a scheme to sell such Men's Suits as we are now selling at $13.50; such Pants at $3.95; such Boys' Suits at $3.95, and get rich inside of a thousand years, we'll cheerfully adopt his scheme. Will somebody please rise and explain which side of the silver idea will make dollars of 100 cents value more plentiful, so that we can sell more clothes? We're somewhat interested in the silver question. We're giving out plenty of it in change.

Horrible Crossing Railroad Accident Near Atlantic City Last Night.

Third Accident on Practically the Same Piece of Track.

Atlantic City, N.J., July 31.—The mid-summer sun burst this morning upon a sleepless, horror-stricken community. The gayety which will mark this resort from now until the end of the season will be but a faint echo of days past. A death pall has fallen upon it. On every street corner and hotel piazza trembling lips discuss last night's fearful catastrophe, and await the additional details revealed by the break of day. The list of dead, as revised, now numbers forty-two, and this is thought to be correct, although there is a possibility that more bodies are under the debris in the pond beside the wreck. The injured so far as known aggregate forty-three. The following is a revised list of dead and injured:

Homer, Alloway, Bridgeport.

THE DEAD ENGINEER.
The force of rescuers continued at work throughout the night, but no more bodies were found. Engineer Edward Farr, who died with his hand on the throttle, was taken out early this morning. It was with much difficulty that his rigid fingers were unclenched from the lever. His head and face were untouched and his eyes looked skyward with a ghastly glare. He had been pinned down by the chest and apparently met instant death.
Almost every home in the body of one male victim was broken when taken from the ruins, and many were so frightfully mangled as to be beyond recognition. By 8 o'clock this morning the greater part of the debris had been cleared away and it is thought that all the bodies have been recovered. Ranged along either side of the stagnant pool which marks the scene were stacked in little heaps, the hats, caps, gloves and other articles of clothing found on the ground. They were pitiful mementoes of the disaster. Two men were guarding a small force of railroad men and city police.

From early morning excursion parties from this city were traveling to the scene of the wreck and conveyances were almost at a premium. The larger number of these excursionists were women who seemed to revel in the horror of the situation and were disappointed at not being able to witness the removal of some of the mangled corpses. The dead have all been removed from the various hospitals and undertakers' shops to the old excursion house, once the scene of festivity and frolic, now a morgue. There the corpses were ranged side by side upon the floor and the place guarded by a corps of police.

Coroner McLaughlin will empanel a jury this afternoon and inquire into the cause of the accident.

OPERATOR ARRESTED.
The arrest of William Thurston, the telegraph operator at the signal tower, confirms the theory that a mistake in the display of the signals was the first cause of the disaster. This is purely conjectured, however, as the arrest may have been in the way of formality. The excursion train was to arrive at 6:30 o'clock, but it was some moments later when it steamed out to meet death and destruction and the day of five or ten minutes on the meadows, where it came to a full stop, is yet to be explained. The Reading train, which the 6:30 from Philadelphia, due here at 6:50 o'clock. The West Jersey train was the 6:30 special excursion train, carrying seven coaches filled with excursionists from Bridgeport, Salem and neighboring villages in South Jersey. It was an excursion on the Improved Order of Red Men, and five tribes were well represented.

The first car on the Reading train and the second on the West Jersey were upset, but the third car on the latter was not. The force of the impact and was literally cut in and each half splintered to splinters. When it is recalled that the engine was well as every other, was fanned with human freight, the horror of the situation can be imagined. The sight of the wreckage for the dead working among the wreckage was a most terrible one in the flickering light of the huge bonfires which sent sheets of yellow flames into the night.

The gang of men went crawling over the debris, kicking at the cars with axes, scrambling to raise heavy timbers with crowbars, and peering by the light of their lanterns into the heaps of wreck. A great part of their work had to be carried on in the midst of a rain, and the men were drenched. The bodies of the injured and dead were found in the debris, and the men were working in the debris with their hands, while their comrades stood by, leaning on their rifles, and some were crying. Sometimes it was a man, sometimes a child, and sometimes a woman whose long hair, broken loose, hung down their faces and tangled about their heads. Then the cry would go up: "Chief, chief," and the men would carry their bodies to the cars, and cover them with a bloody handkerchief, through the crowd. Chief of Police Eldridge, who had charge of the scene, was seen for the first time, and he was carried to where the corpses lay, and the men looked with their lanterns like great fires, lighting about the ruins.

While this was going on, the on-lookers were lined in a crowd seven or eight deep around the splintered cars and interfered considerably with the work of the rescuers. Word had been passed that the wreckage occurred on the accident to the city for police aid, and a patrol party appeared almost as soon as the wreckage occurred. They took charge of the entire affair, but notwithstanding the excellent management, the crowd persisted in pushing through the cordon of watchmen. The use of commands, and even of clubs, was wholly vain, and it was chiefly by the exertion of brute force that protection was secured for the searchers.

SOME SAD SIGHTS.
Men shouted and fought to get away, women shrieked at the top of their lungs, and the children left off sobbing with terror. A man came pushing through to watch a body being taken from the ruins, but as soon as he saw the distorted face and twisted limbs of the victim, he gave a shriek of horror and rushed away. A woman, who was seen to be in a state of collapse, was taken to a nearby house, and a man, who was seen to be in a state of collapse, was taken to a nearby house.

SURVIVORS' STORIES.
Scene of Horror Never to Be Forgotten.

Philadelphia, July 31.—Dr. Charles A. Smith, of Harrisburg, who was near by when the awful railroad accident occurred outside of Atlantic City, passed through Philadelphia on his way home this morning. He tells a graphic story of the scenes he witnessed. "It was an awful sight," said Dr. Smith. "Only four or five bodies had been taken out from the wreck when I arrived there. The Reading express had struck the excursion train on the Pennsylvania, cutting it clean in two. The Reading engine struck the second passenger coach of the excursion train with a terrific force impossible to imagine.

"The coach was smashed into bits; there was nothing left of it except a tangle of splinters, mixed up with which were the mangled and torn bodies of men, women and children. Death had come instantaneously, as from a lightning stroke, to most of them. There was a semblance of a railroad car in this heap of kindling wood. The third coach had not received the full impact of the blow, but it was tipped up badly and lay overturned with one side torn off.

VICTORIA

Great Britain's Aged and Good Queen to Soon Abdicate.

Her Health is Very Poor and Age Oppresses Her.

The Wedding Trip to London Her Last Visit There.

London, July 31.—The rumor that Queen Victoria intends to retire in favor of the prince of Wales is again current today and it is added that court circles are greatly troubled regarding the condition of the queen's health. Such reports have frequently appeared of recent years, only to be semi-officially contradicted later, but it now seems that there may be some actual foundation for the statements made.

It is added that her majesty has decided to spend her time in future at Balmoral, or at Osborne, and that she will give the prince and princess of Wales the use of Buckingham palace and Windsor castle.

There is no doubt that the queen seems to feel greatly the weight of her years and bereavement, and her majesty is quoted as having repeatedly remarked during her last stay in this city, at Buckingham palace, upon the occasion of the recent marriage of Princess Maud of Wales to Prince Charles of Denmark: "This is my last visit to London."

Color is given to the rumors in circulation by the deep emotion displayed by the queen as she bowed in reply to the enthusiastic cheers of the multitudes which lined the route from Buckingham palace to the railroad station where she took the train for Windsor after the marriage ceremonies.

GAME AND FISH.

State Protective Association Meets in St. Paul.

St. Paul, July 31.—The first annual meeting of the Minnesota Game and Fish Protective association was held yesterday at the Windsor hotel.

Officers were elected and an important amendment was made to the constitution and by-laws. The Western Fish and Game, published in St. Paul and Minneapolis, was made the official paper of the association, and a handsome silver cup was accepted from William L. Tucker, the secretary. The executive committee membership was increased from fifteen to twenty, and it was decided that five members of the executive committee should be selected at times to serve a quorum, as the executive committee are selected with reference to congressional districts and therefore have widely diverging points of view.

The meeting was fairly well attended by members of the association, and indication of the interest taken in the work of protecting Minnesota's game preserves. With one exception, the officers were all re-elected. C. S. Benson has become a member of the state game and fish commission, and his place as first vice president was filled by the selection of L. Thelander, of St. Cloud. The officers of the association for the ensuing year, therefore, are the following: President, U. L. Lamprey, St. Paul; first vice president, C. H. Thelander, St. Cloud; second vice president, P. E. Davis, Minneapolis; third vice president, E. B. Palmer, Duluth; treasurer, William L. Tucker, St. Paul; secretary, William L. Wolford, Minneapolis; attorney, H. P. Goodenow, St. Paul.

On motion President Lamprey was instructed to select the five additional members of the executive committee. These will be chosen from Minneapolis and two from St. Paul. When seen last night Mr. Lamprey said that he had not decided who would be selected.

Important Committee Gathering in Chicago Tomorrow.

Chicago, July 31.—There will be an important meeting of the executive committee having in charge state organizations of Democrats at the Palmer house headquarters tomorrow. Con. The work of bringing about a national convention is progressing satisfactorily. It is now believed that from thirty to thirty-five states will be represented at the conference on Aug. 7.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND KNOWS HIM.

St. Paul, July 31.—Archbishop Ireland had received no other word in regard to the appointment of a successor for Monsignor Satali as delegate to the United States other than that contained in the Associated Press dispatch from Rome. He spoke very freely of Father MacInelli, whom he esteems very much. He says the delegate speaks both English and French fluently, which will be greatly to his advantage. Father MacInelli is a very intellectual man and will make an excellent delegate.

CHAMBERLAIN IS WANTED.

TORPEDO BOATS.

Washington, July 31.—One effect of the late China-Japanese war which is just developing was to direct the attention of naval architects to the necessity of providing some means for the little torpedo boats which form the main reliance of many ports for defense against hostile fleets, and also necessary adjuncts of these very fleets.

Among the Japanese torpedo boats which covered themselves with glory in the attacks upon the Chinese fleet at Port Arthur and Wei Hai Wei was the little Koiu, a vessel built eleven years ago by Yarrow. She has some armor, not much, it is true, but one inch over the boilers and machinery, and this enabled her to run in where no other boat could escape destruction.

The British designers were quick to see the advantage of this kind of protection, and information has just reached here that the Yarrow have just made a successful trial of one of the four boats built for Argentina, all intended to be armed with torpedoes and to make the boat half an inch of high grade steel armor.

While a slight sacrifice of speed is required to carry this armor, it is held that it will give the crews greater confidence, protect them against the rain of small shells, and make the boats more effective. Probably the idea will be taken up by our naval experts before long.

BRYAN AT CHICAGO.

He Will Be Given a Great Reception.

Chicago, July 31.—Active preparations are going on for a reception to William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for president, on the occasion of his visit to Chicago. Aug. 1 and 2. ### English Buyers Scramble to Get Bargains.

London, July 31.—The second shipment of 5,000 boxes of California pears and the few boxes of plums which arrived here yesterday were sold today. The pears fetched from 5s 9d to 7s 6d, a better average throughout than the first lot, which was sold at 4s 6d to 6s 6d. The best plums realized 2s higher. There was keen competition for the pears, which are still underpriced, but the price as the last lot, buyers there sold before the large buyers from the provinces.

Were Minus the Crowd.

At Virginia a few nights ago a meeting was called for the organization of a McKinley and Morris club. The hall was not filled to suffocation with a wildly enthusiastic crowd; in fact, there was no crowd present; the meeting was adjourned one week to get together enough of a crowd to organize into a club.

Fine Billiard Playing.

Last night at the St. Louis billiard parlors a match, arranged for in the afternoon, between Martin Mullin, a prominent coal and vessel agent and one of the most expert amateur billiardists in the country, and Arthur Hawkins, was played, and notwithstanding the fact that this match was gotten up at almost a moment's notice, a large crowd witnessed the contest. Mr. Mullin, who had arrived in Duluth during the day, and arranged the match, was defeated by Mr. Hawkins, who needed three points on the second game when Hawkins scored a run of 20 and the latter won the match. Mr. Mullin remains in the city another match will probably be played tonight.

OLD OUT

E. L. Fisher Thrown Overboard By Joseph Sellwood Yesterday Afternoon.

Consideration Given Him Was the Control of the Legislative Delegation.

Full Particulars of the Deal and How it Was Worked.

The Republican county convention, held yesterday at the Pavilion, will live in history, and many a hard battle will be fought out before the bitterness and hatred engendered there will be forgotten. No man was ever a more faithful friend in politics to another than has E. L. Fisher been to Joseph Sellwood, and no man was probably ever more ruthlessly thrown aside. It was as clear a trade as ever was made, and Mr. Sellwood made no secret of the fact that the control of the legislative delegation meant more to him than the selection of all the county officers, and that he would throw anybody and everybody overboard to get it.

In the opening fight of the convention for the control of the organization, the Fisher-Sellwood men named Dr. McCuen for temporary chairman, and the Sargent men had R. E. Howard as their leader. The vote was extremely close. The city went strongly for Howard, but as the vote of the ranges and outside towns was recorded, the margin of Howard's lead narrowed down. When Everett, having two votes, was called, the result, tinged on the way those should go. They went for Howard, and there was a tremendous shout of victory from the Sargent forces. The vote was 61 to 61.

During the time of taking this ballot Joseph Sellwood sat on a front seat, half facing the crowd of delegates. He looked confident at the outset, for his henchmen claimed to have seventy-three delegates pledged to McCuen. As the vote proceeded the look on his face became dark, and then darker, and when the result was announced, he looked ahead, lost in thought, and that brown study, it proved later, boded ill for Mr. Fisher.

The temporary organization was proceeded with, Mr. Howard took the chair, making no speech. W. B. Dunlop was chosen secretary, and a committee on credentials consisting of J. J. LeTourneau, G. H. Holden, J. G. Cohoe, H. B. Sturtevant and W. J. Smart was named. The usual recess was then taken.

MAKING THE DICKER. It was during this recess that the dicker was made. Joseph Sellwood went to B. E. Howard and told him that he must have that legislative delegation.

Mr. Howard replied that there was only one way to get it, and that was to pull Fisher off and see that Sargent was made the nominee.

Mr. Sellwood replied that he would throw Fisher or anyone else to get that delegation.

The deal was made, and the list of delegates, prepared yesterday morning by Joseph Sellwood, representing the Minnesota Iron company interests, and Joseph H. Cotton, representing the Consolidated company, was handed in. The list as reported was changed somewhat. In the Sellwood list A. L. Warner was the man named as chairman, while in the list reported and adopted G. W. Dulac is the man. About ten names in all were changed, but Joseph Sellwood was entirely satisfied last night, and the whole thing was done to suit him.

The conference between Sellwood and Howard was heard by several, and the report given is correct.

After the deal was made, Sellwood went to P. R. Vall, of Ely, and said: "If ever I wanted you to do anything for me, Paddy, I want it now."

Mr. Vall asked what it was, and was told to swing his vote for Sargent so as to allow Sellwood to secure the legislative delegation.

Capt. Wallace, of Payal, and W. N. Shepherd and Sam Owens, of Tower, were told the same thing.

Mr. Shepherd went to Mr. Fisher and said: "Fisher, I have promised to stand by you and I'll do it now if you say so, but Sellwood wants us to go for Sargent."

Mr. Fisher by that time knew of the deal, and told them the fight was lost, and that they might as well vote as Sellwood wished. P. R. Vall also told Mr. Fisher that Sellwood had thrown him and was swinging the range against him.

Mr. Fisher finally told his followers not to present his name, seeing that his support was leaving him. He left the convention and went down town. His feelings may well be imagined. If beaten in a fair contest he would have acquiesced gracefully, but he was sold out by his supposed friend, and he could not be blamed for feeling sore. As he came down town he told some friends that he had stood by Sellwood for fourteen years, and now the only time when he had ever asked a vote, he had been sold out.

Mr. Fisher's friends are of the same opinion, and the way Joseph Sellwood was roasted last night would have made a more sensitive man want to keep out of sight.

TAKES IT COOLLY. Mr. Sellwood took a very coolly, however, and was heard to say last night that a few petty county officers did not cut any figure with him when he had interests of his own to protect.

What would have been the result of a ballot for Sargent if that convention had Joseph Sellwood not shown his hand will never be known. Mr. Sargent's friends are confident that they had it. Two or three Sargent men voted for McCuen because of a personal dislike to Mr. Howard. On the other hand Mr. Fisher will never be persuaded that he did not have a clear majority of eight or ten votes. His friends claimed that at least ten who voted for Howard came to him and told him that they would vote for him when the contest for sheriff came on. He was confident and expected to run, when the news came to him like a thunderbolt that Sellwood had made the trade.

KNEIV NOTHING OF IT. It is but fair to William G. Sargent to say that he knew nothing of the trade and was given no opportunity to counteract or discontinue it. It was made by his friends and he probably knew of it no sooner than did Mr. Fisher. Every one who knows Mr. Sargent knows him to be square and above-board, and it would have been his choice to win in a straight contest without any influence entering into it such as did in this. The result was a disappointment to him, and he afterward expressed regret that he had to win in that way.

Mr. Fisher lays no blame on Mr. Sargent. "I shall support the ticket," said he today. "I do not blame Mr. Sargent."

committee for the benefit of Dr. Darnes, of Eveleth, who was a candidate for the legislature. The Sargent men had to accord him that for it was Dr. Darnes who saved the day. The Eveleth delegation elected Howard chairman.

When the committee was called together, D. R. McLennan, John G. Howard and John G. Cohoe went into a room and took with them Joseph Sellwood. The door was closed against Wallace and Eullivan. As to the former it made no difference, for he was a Sell-day. ROUTINE OF THE CONVENTION. The committee on credentials reported in about an hour and a quarter and the report was adopted. The temporary organization was made permanent and the following committees were appointed:

To select delegates to the legislative convention—D. R. McLennan, Thomas Sullivan, G. W. Wallace, John G. Howard and J. G. Cohoe.

To select delegates to the judicial convention—Simon Clark, R. E. Patterson, houn, and J. W. Reynolds named P. J. Borgstrom, of Virginia, of Virginia, was placed in nomination by J. C. Jackson, of that city.

The ballot on register of deeds resulted: Borgstrom, 84; Laybourn, 12; Prince, 4. Borgstrom was declared the nominee.

P. R. Vall, of Ely, moved that W. C. Sargent be nominated by acclamation for sheriff. Fisher's name was not presented.

Mr. Vall's motion was carried unanimously and Sargent was declared the nominee.

NICHOLS GETS THERE. George Arbury was nominated for county attorney by acclamation.

Lennox, A. L. Warner, Paul Sherry, Ray T. Nichols, John Olson, A. L. LeDuc, C. P. Dole, C. R. Hensage, D. H. Williams, Carl T. H. Pressnell, Ed. worth Benham, Dr. J. J. Eklund, Joseph Reynolds, Thomas Clark, Levi Williams, H. C. Kelly, P. R. Vall, W. C. Benham, F. E. Kennedy, P. S. Ansko, C. Purdon, W. M. Huges, J. G. Howard, F. W. Parsons, Thomas R. Stewart, David T. Adams, Fred Rosson. The report was adopted.

The judicial committee reported the following names, nineteen in number, as their choice of delegates to the judicial convention: C. L. Lewis, Thomas S. Ansko, O. D. Kinney, W. E. Robinson, C. A. Congdon, Samuel Owens, J. E. Armstrong, Simon Clark, R. C. McKinley, C. T. Crandall, Bert Smith, R. P. Edson, W. N. Edson, J. R. Campbell, Ellsworth Benham, W. G. Triggs, I. T. Abbott, W. J. Adams, Frank Hicks. The report was adopted.

THE RESOLUTIONS. The committee on resolutions presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"The Republicans of St. Louis county, in convention assembled, do hereby affirm and endorse the platform adopted by the national Republican convention at St. Louis, and of the state convention of the Republican party, adopted at St. Paul, and we pledge our earnest, hearty support of the nominees of our party, national, state, district and county."

F. A. Sills then offered the following special resolution and it went through with a whoop:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this convention that no nominee hereof, or of any convention composed of delegates here nominated, should accept the nomination or endorsement of any other political party, and that such nominees should use every honorable effort to further the interests of the entire Republican ticket."

"Resolved, therefore, further, that if any such nominee shall hereafter accept such nomination or endorsement, or refrain from promptly repudiating the same, or if such nominee shall make any combination with or attempt to further the interests of any other than the regular Republican nominee for office, then the Republican county committee of St. Louis county are empowered and directed to strike the name of such person from the list of the Republican nominees and from the Republican ticket, and to take the necessary and lawful means to fill the vacancy thereby occasioned."

The chairman was authorized to appoint the usual county committee and the convention adjourned shortly after 9 o'clock.

for my being sold out, and I have only friendly feelings for him."

THAT COMMITTEE'S DELIBERATIONS. The deliberations of the committee named to recommend the legislative delegation exhibit in a glaring manner the way in which the deal was carried through. The members were: D. R. McLennan, Thomas Sullivan, of Eveleth; G. W. Wallace, of Payal; John G. Howard and J. G. Cohoe.

Thomas Sullivan was placed on the wood man anyway. After a time they came out called in Sullivan and Wallace and submitted the list prepared. A vote was called for and the result was 4 to 1 in favor of the delegation dictated by Sellwood. Sullivan casting the negative vote.

Dr. Darnes is feeling anything but pleasant today over the outcome. He thinks he deserved better treatment from the Sargent men and says if he had swung the men he controlled to the other side, Sargent would have lost the Alf Gillon, Sam Owens and W. J. Stevenson.

Nominations of county officers were in order, and J. W. Reynolds presented the name of O. Halden for county auditor. He was nominated by acclamation.

John G. Cohoe presented the name of L. H. Whipple for county treasurer, and he was nominated by acclamation.

For register of deeds, G. H. Holden placed in nomination George R. Lay-

This first venture was followed by others, and de Rozier, the first to ascend, was also the first to meet his death in this manner, having been killed with a companion by the burning of his balloon near Scutegone.

HEARING

The Rish A. Gray Estate Case Adjourned Until Next Friday.

R. S. Munger Testifies as to Gray's Handwriting and Other Matters.

Watson Again Testified as to Gray's Signature on Some Checks.

R. S. Munger was the first witness to be placed upon the stand to testify on behalf of the Gray heirs this morning. His testimony was largely relative to Gray's handwriting and was similar to that heretofore given in the case. Mr. Munger said that he had known Gray from the time the latter was a boy of 16, and that they had been associated together in business. He stated in reply to a question by Mr. Billson that the maiden name of Gray's first wife was Lottis Burr.

On cross-examination, witness testified that so far as he knew there had not been trouble between Gray and his wife which had resulted in their separation. He asserted that he had never known of Gray having had more than one wife.

Mr. Sullivan questioned Mr. Munger as to the place in Duluth where Gray had lived, but further than the fact that Mr. Gray had moved about to a considerable extent Mr. Munger was unable to give much information. He said that he had never known of Gray's living on Lake avenue.

Roger Gray was the next witness. He had been in the employ of Rish A. Gray by both this witness and the preceding one it was shown that in writing Mr. Gray held his pen between the first and middle fingers.

Mr. Hollenback at this point raised a technical question relative to the introduction in evidence of the letter which Mrs. Western-Gray had written to Gray just before his death. Mr. Hollenback added to the usual objection of incompetence and irrelevance the claim that the letter had never been received by Gray, and that it was therefore the private property of Mrs. Western-Gray. He did not know, he said, how the representative of the post office obtained possession of the letter, but had it been allowed to follow the customary course it would have gone through the dead letter office and would have been returned to Mrs. Western-Gray. Under these conditions he thought it could not be put in evidence against the will of his client.

Mr. Billson replied that he did not consider it necessary to disclose the manner in which he had come into possession of the letter, but that for the information of opposing counsel he would say that it was received from the administrator of Mr. Gray's estate in Maine. He considered the letter relevant inasmuch as it proved that instead of expecting soon to join Gray as his acknowledged wife, Mrs. Western-Gray had been preparing to take out a living by securing the Lester Park hotel and taking boarders.

Judge Ayer took Mr. Billson's view of the question and admitted the letter.

Mr. Watson, who testified for the heirs, was recalled by Mr. Greene for cross-examination. Mr. Gray's check book was produced and a number of checks were introduced. One of these the y signature was looped instead of ending like a capital q. In the letter purporting to be in Gray's writing shown him Wednesday Mr. Watson had given as one of his reasons for believing it to be a forgery the fact that the y was looped in this manner. A dozen or more checks with the looped y were shown him, but he still held that even in the looped letters the q style was followed, and he still thought that the looped y in the letter was an indication of forgery. This was not one of his reasons for thinking the letter to have been written by someone other than Gray, but he could not say whether or not it was his strongest reason. Many other of the characteristics of the signature on the letter which Mr. Watson had held to indicate forgery were shown to be reproduced on many of the checks.

J. A. Kelley, who had picked out the checks, testified that he had gone over the book with a view of finding signatures which bore the characteristics mentioned as indicating forgery in the letter.

With this testimony Mr. Billson closed his case.

Mr. Greene wished time to prepare evidence in rebuttal, and asked for a continuance until Tuesday. Mr. Billson said that he would probably be out of the city next week, and asked that if the case were to be continued it be taken up again on Monday.

Mr. Parker, representing Mrs. Bradley-Gray, objected to remaining over the week or returning to Duluth in ten days. Upon Mr. Greene's statement that no evidence will be introduced by him, Mr. Parker withdrew his objection.

After some discussion it was agreed that counsel for Mrs. Western-Gray might withdraw the writings introduced in evidence for one day from the custody of the court for examination. By agreement of counsel the hearing was continued until Friday of next week.

HAVE SCARLET FEVER.

Disease Has Been Raging Unknown to the Authorities.

Scarlet fever has been running riot, unnoted, on Eighth avenue west, between Third and Fourth streets. No physician has been called in any of the six cases and a young lady living in the brick row cornering on First street, and in whose family the disease has claimed a victim, has been attending to her duties daily as a stenographer in a downtown office. She will not return home this evening.

Thus far, no deaths have occurred. The strength of the little patients successfully combating both the disease and the old-fashioned family sore throat remedies that have been applied. When the first developed, in the form of a sore throat and a slight rash, it was pronounced not to be scarlet fever by a lady living in the neighborhood, who had had scarlet fever fifteen years ago. She failed to identify the rash by a comparison of the case before her with that which, according to her memory, characterized her case. The child first attacked had a run of the fever and recovered and five others followed suit, the last one having just been taken with the disease.

An intimation of the state of affairs reached Health Officer Routh late last evening. Bright and early this morning, he commenced an investigation, which brought to light the facts as detailed herein. The houses infected were at once placarded and steps taken to prevent a further spread of the disease.

The case against Pat Gallagher, who was charged with being the man who did up Pasquale Russetta, was dismissed, it appearing that the complainant had made a mistake in his man.

WEST END

Rally For Page Morris at Great Eastern Hall Last Evening.

Hall Was Well Filled and a Large Number on the Stage.

Judge Morris Strongly Appeals to the Republicanism of His Hearers.

Page Morris, the Republican candidate for congress was the main star at the meeting held last evening at Great Eastern hall under the auspices of the McKinley club. The hall was well filled and the would-be congressman received a respectful hearing from his audience.

E. R. Follett, president of the club, acted as chairman and he was surrounded on the stage by G. J. Mallory, L. A. Barnes, L. S. Neuman, C. E. Pearson, R. L. Cochran, J. P. Joy, A. C. Le Due, F. A. Bailey and other citizens.

Mr. LeDue was first called upon and made a short speech in eulogy of the Republican party and its principles and its present administration of affairs.

Page Morris was then introduced as the next congressman and he spoke as follows: Two years ago I spoke to you in this place, but under entirely different circumstances. At that time I spoke in the interest of the candidate for congress, I said today in the same position that I did then in regard to the issues of the campaign. That candidate also said what he said and now I believe in the cardinal principles of the Republican party. A man of great talent, the president who believed that he had solved all the great political questions of the day.

The conditions at that time were the same exactly as they are today. The cardinal principles of the Republican party which I espoused were protection, sound money. The only change is an extension and intensification of those conditions. Under Republican rule the national debt was decreasing, the factories were working and there was employment for all. In 1894 under the rule of the Democrats the factories were closed, the public debt was increasing, reciprocity was revoked and the principles of the Republican party abolished.

"As for the policy of protection that is sacred and the people are all of one mind. The Democratic party find it self in deep disgrace and distrust has gripped around for some issue with which to expunge the party from memory. And I found one in the mad idea of the silver fallacy. I am here now to try and turn you away from this mad idea, but I find my opponent not changed his principles. I would gladly announce that I have changed my cause instead of my own. Today he stands side by side with that fiercest of Democrats who has declared that he will not rest until the last vestiges of protection are swept from the statute books.

"When you vote for Towne and Bryan you are voting for the old Democratic party. There is no going back over a few false policy. Protection proves most disastrous to the poor and most costly to the nation. A day's wages for a man in 1892 and very little since with that in mind that condition is best for the laboring man which opens the factory doors and gives employment to the people.

"What does it mean? It means that any corruption of mine owners can take 3714 grains of pure silver to the mint and get a dollar for it. They can then force you and I to take that for wages and produce. It will be a depreciated dollar and it is a fact. The man who says that when you attempt to make two kinds of currency circulate side by side the cheap money will drive out the good money. So gold as the good money will take wings and fly away.

The speaker then reviewed the monetary system from the formation of the government up to the present time. He gave his address, he quoted copiously from speeches made by Towne during his first campaign for congress to prove that he had changed his position and creed. At the close of the meeting the audience was invited to come up on the stage and shake hands with Judge Morris.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Prices Today at the Opening Were Higher.

New York, Aug. 1.—The stock market opened firm and generally higher on moderate purchases for both accounts. Sugar touched 106 and Chicago Gas after a rise of 4 per cent to 64, reacted to 53 1/2. Burlington opened 9 1/2 higher, but fell to maintain the improvement. Changes otherwise were slight and the market displayed some irregularity at this time. The market after some hesitation trended downward under the impetus of realizing and indications of liquidation in some of the low-priced shares. Sugar reacted to 104 1/2 and Manhattan suffered a similar concession to 88 1/2. The changes in the railway shares lacked importance, although a majority of the stocks were a shade below yesterday's closing.

The heavy realizing sales in Sugar and an unsettling influence on the general list and further losses were scored throughout. Large blocks of Sugar were offered, and the price reacted to 10 1/2. The market closed weak, with fractional losses general. The aggregate sales were 66,700 shares.

ABOUT PETS.

Talk to Them to Make Them Love You.

Our Animal Friends: The most important kindness we can do any animal that lives with us or that works for us is to talk to him. It is all very well to give our pets proper food and care, but it is not enough. If man does not live by bread only, the animal friends of man also have higher requirements. They need companionship; they need conversation. A team of horses that work regularly together have their way of talking with each other. A cat and her kittens, a pair of prairie dogs, or any other pets which are fortunate in the companionship of their own kind do not really need our intimacy; but they will never learn to love us unless we take the trouble to be agreeable to them, and they will never be half so intelligent in understanding what we expect them to do if we omit to say clearly what we want and if we are unwilling to bear our part in a friendly conversation.

You talk to your pets, of course, boys and girls; we have not supposed that you do not. What do you say to a dog for a pet, and some other member of the family may have a canary. The boy considers it his dog the finest, cleverest, and most intelligent of the family. The girl thinks it is a stupid little thing that cares for nothing and is easily frightened. Let him go up and talk to the canary and talk to it for a moment. The little bird will cock its head and listen to the voice of its master. He will chirp a delighted answer, ending very probably in a burst of happy song. If you can talk to an animal in this way, you will find that it cannot be otherwise than stupid. We know a story of a canary who was very fond of his master, but was constantly abused. Its cage hung where it could not look out of the window, and it could not get any sort of exercise for it. The poor little bird died of nothing in the world but solitary confinement.

A yet sadder story is told of a child. A woman who was not her mother simply fed and clothed a little girl. Day after day she let the child crawl around the room where she took in washing for a living. Not only did she never pet her, she never spoke to her! Some good people noticed that the little girl showed signs of intelligence and could understand what was said to her. It was because she had never been taught a single word. The little girl is now bright and happy with kind friends.

THE DREAD OF MARRIAGE.
The case of Peter Henderson, the negro who some time ago snatched a pocketbook from a lady on Crew street, and who was bound over to the superior court by Judge Fouts, has given to one of the most peculiar cases ever heard of, says the Atlanta Constitution.

It seems that Henderson committed the deed for the purpose of getting arrested in order that he might not have to marry. He had been engaged to a young girl of his acquaintance for some time, but on further consideration of the matter decided that it would be best for him to lead a single life. When he went to get a license he came back to his bride without the coveted article, and said that he had been told that it would be ten days before he could get one.

His faithful bride believed the story, and arrangements were made for the wedding to take place on the last day of the ten. When the ten days had passed the bride desired that the wedding, and when the time for the bridegroom to put in his appearance came, she waited long and patiently for him, but that gentleman failed to turn up. When the young bride saw that her would-be husband did not intend to marry her she made up her mind to have him arrested. When he heard of this it seems that he decided that it would be better to be arrested on some other charge. He told a friend to tell any one who might ask him that he had been arrested. That same afternoon he walked down Crew street, and robbed a lady, committing one of the boldest acts of the kind that ever took place in this city. From all the facts so far learned it would seem that he preferred to say in jail and the single to being free and married.

CHOR MAN'S DICTIONARY.
The man had assured the elderly lady who owned the suburban dwelling that he was going to make everything in the way of chores, and that he was a mighty handy man. He had given numerous bits of work to do, and had come to regard himself as a regular housekeeper. He was in the habit of saying to his wife, "I am a mighty handy man, and I can do anything you want me to do." One day he was asked to mend a pair of trousers, and he did so. The next day he was asked to mend a pair of trousers, and he did so. The next day he was asked to mend a pair of trousers, and he did so.

Of St. Louis County, Minnesota.

Auditor's Office,
St. Louis County, Minn., July 7, 1896.
The board of county commissioners met at 2 o'clock p. m. this 7th day of July, 1896, pursuant to call.

Present—Commissioners Swenson, Miller, Morcom, Dinham and Chairman Helm.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and, upon motion of Commissioner Miller, were approved.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS.

From C. E. Richardson, city clerk of Duluth, transmitting a copy of the resolution passed by the city council urging this board, with other bodies, to give expression to their protest against the cancellation of the Duluth Gas and Water Company's franchise, in order that same may be used in proceedings before the attorney general.

Ordered received and filed.

From F. G. Vallee, complaining that a drain across his property adjoining the court house grounds is being made use of to carry waste water from the county jail, and that it has destroyed a part of his barn and is more or less of a nuisance. He asks this board to make other provisions for carrying the waste water from court house grounds and that they reimburse him to the extent of $5 for damages.

Referred to committee on court house and jail.

A communication from John Courtney in the form of an affidavit representing that he arrested James E. Olson, alias A. A. Austin, the murderer of Lena Olson, and claiming the reward of $250, authorized by this board in October, 1894, for the arrest and conviction of A. A. Austin, the supposed murderer of Lena Olson.

Referred to the committee on claims and accounts.

A communication from William J. Bates, representing and showing that a certain personal property judgment entered against Murphy & Luther on the 12th day of October, 1894, appears to be a lien against the lot of section 28, township 53, range 19, owned by himself and others; that said Murphy & Luther never have been interested in the title to said property in any other manner than as trustees, and asks that said tax judgment lien, so far as it relates to said section 28, township 53, range 19, be released by this board in favor of said Murphy & Luther.

Referred to committee on taxes and assessments.

Petition of Ole Gulbranson, August, Magnusson & G. Peterson and thirty-three others, representing themselves to be a majority of the legal voters of the town of Fond du Lac, asking this board to change the name of said town of Fond du Lac to "Midway."

The county treasurer submitted the sheriff's report of unpaid delinquent personal property taxes, as transmitted to him, together with his certificate verifying the same.

Referred to the committee on taxes and assessments.

The petition of Wesley Matthews and one hundred others, representing that it is the desire of the settlers living along the proposed new county road which extends from the Swan Lake road to the Iron ranges, that said road be laid out and established along the following described route:

Beginning at the point where the present county road now running from town 12 to Iron Junction strikes the north bank of the St. Louis river, which is about one-half mile east of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, and from thence running in a southerly direction adjoining the right-of-way of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway track 53, range 18, and from thence in any direction considered most feasible by your planning point in the resolution passed by your board and in the resolution passed by your board and in the resolution passed by your board.

AMONG THE SPORTS.

Most of the local sporting interest is now centered in the summer tournament of the Central Gun club, which will be held on Aug. 12 and 13 at the new grounds at Thirty-first avenue east on the lake shore. The club has gone to a considerable expense in securing and fitting up the new grounds, but the result is one of the best trap ranges in the country. The birds are shown toward the lake, and the fact they fly against a clear background of water and sky makes them perfectly distinct to the marksman during their entire flight. Another point in favor of the new range is its nearness to the city.

At the tournament which have been given by the club on the Spirit Lake grounds the attendance of spectators has always been small, but it is expected that at this year's shoot there will be many spectators on the grounds. Members of the club are now shooting twice a week in preparation for the events of the tournament, and the demand for loaded shells is on the increase. One local house has sold as high as 1000 shells loaded for trap shooting in a day.

The program of the tournament has been issued. Each day eight events will be shot. Of these are cash events, the prizes being $100, $50, $25, and $10. The prizes for the highest score in each event will be $50, $25, $10, and $5. A merchandise shoot will be held, for which a number of valuable prizes have been donated. The list of average prizes is a long one and includes many valuable articles. The committee in charge of the arrangements has been most successful in securing donations.

The prizes are as follows:

place to pine is to be found near Wade's camp, where explorations for copper are now being carried on. A party of ten or twelve will be out Sunday at this point this week, and during the day seventy-five or 100 these birds will be shot. A distinct wheel path was worn. The run to French river is the easiest of any in this vicinity.

Pike lake is the objective point for many wheelmen and wheelwomen this season. The road is now in excellent condition, but there is more than a desirable amount of up hill to it. The round trip is twenty-eight miles. The run to Pike lake and return is a comfortable day's jaunt, with a good hotel and dinner during the noon rest. The excitement will register sixty miles at the finish. Except for the grades, the road is excellent.

A few of the more venturesome sports have made the run to Black River Falls, Wis., and return. The falls is about twenty-eight miles from the Snodgrass corner and a portion of the road is none too good. Yet one who can make a hard ride is amply repaid for his exertion by the beauty of the scenery and the view of the falls.

The trip to Two Harbors is not an easy one. Thirty or forty miles are started on the spin there arranged for last Sunday. One party left the city at about 10 o'clock. The owners of the car were not to go, but a number of people who were to go did not, and a number of people who were to go did not.

A turn of the wheel was not an unpleasant variation in wheeling. The scenery is always fine and the air is always fresh.

The building of a new curling rink at a central location by the Duluth Curling Club is now practically assured, and it is very probable that the site, west side of First avenue west on Second street, which has been under discussion by the committee appointed by the club to raise funds for the building, will be secured.

The plan of the club is to put up a very plain building at a moderate cost, and to make it suitable for holding political and other meetings when not in use by the club. The building will be a simple affair, with a hall and a few rooms. The plan of the club is to put up a very plain building at a moderate cost, and to make it suitable for holding political and other meetings when not in use by the club.

The committee on finance has been very successful in securing donations. To the five lowest averages $1000 will be given. The list of donors is as follows:

men and girls, among the business men and the members of the club who had not been called upon. Messrs. Palmer & Hall are the architects of the new two building, which they will donate to the club, and they have also offered to superintend the work of erection without cost to the club, except for the cost of the building.

Next Monday night a meeting of the club will be held, the plans will be submitted and the question of the cost of the building will be given. It is thought that the rink can be built for from $2500 to $3000.

Today and tomorrow the Duluth Baseball team will play the Marquette nine and the home grounds of the latter club will be the Duluth grounds. A large number of baseball enthusiasts, left yesterday afternoon over the South Shore, will be present to witness the game. A U. W. convention at which delegates from the entire northern portion of Michigan are present is being held in Marquette, and the game will doubtless be played before well filled bleachers.

THE FIRE COMMISSION.

The Coal Men Thought to Have Combined.

The fire commissioners are inclined to think the coal men have combined on them. Bids for supply of coal for the ensuing season were received and opened some time ago. They were all high and all pretty nearly the same figure. It was felt that a contract should not be awarded on any of the bids submitted, a conviction that further discussion of the matter at today's meeting only deepened. It was resolved to let the matter stand open for a month.

By the report of the chief it is shown that the department responded to twelve alarms of fire during the month. The loss by fire for the period is $19,636; insurance on the property, $109,000.

A Red Hot Day.

The weather bureau thermometer today showed a temperature of 88 degrees. Every other thermometer in town registered from 92 or 93 up to 100. Yesterday the temperature was 86 degrees. The wind today has relaxed the excessive heat, but to the average person it was the hottest day of the season, no matter what the thermometer says.

Democratic Convention.

The Democratic primaries were held Saturday evening and the county convention was called to meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The primaries were uninteresting and there is no doubt but that a delegation favorable to John Lim will be sent to the state convention at St. Paul tomorrow.

KNEW NOTHING OF IT.

Mrs. Pepper Ignorant of Her Husband's Second Marriage. There were new developments today in the case wherein Ilona Pepper as plaintiff seeks judgment against Ashabel Pepper and others for the setting aside of a decree of divorce entered Nov. 12, 1889. Ashabel Pepper was husband of the defendant, and secured a divorce from her on the ground of desertion. The suit to set aside this decree was brought some time ago, the grounds of the action being the claim that the divorce was secured by a false affidavit, and that there was an irregularity in the service of the summons.

Papers filed today were an affidavit by John M. McClintock, plaintiff's attorney, and an order by Judge Ensign. The affidavit is made for the purpose of including as defendants in the action Mrs. Mattie Pepper and her infant daughter Elaine, who reside at 92 Hawthorne avenue, Minneapolis. The affidavit states that since the filing of the complaint it has been learned by the plaintiff that Mattie Pepper claims to be the wife of Pepper, having married him after the decree of divorce, which is sought to annul, was granted. The child Elaine is the issue of this marriage.

Judge Ensign, on the strength of this affidavit, orders that the woman and child be made co-defendants, be served with a copy of the complaint, and have twenty days in which to answer.

Only Sixteen Signed.

A meeting for the organization of a McKibben and Morris club was held at Carlton on Saturday evening. There were about 125 people in attendance. After the enthusiasm had been worked up to its high a pitch as possible, the club membership roll was produced, but a harvest of only sixteen members was gathered.

Important to Tax-Payers.

The board of equalization will, beginning Monday, Aug. 3, be in continuous session for some weeks at the county auditor's office at the corner of the house, and will be prepared to hear and determine all complaints which may be brought to its notice.

During the week commencing Aug. 3 it will take up and consider the matter of the assessment of values for the year 1896 and the organized towns, villages and cities throughout the county, and each person desiring to be heard will be given an opportunity.

Superior Board of Trade insists That Minnesota Inspection Be Withdrawn.

State Commissioners Will Discontinue the Inspection on Aug. 12.

Duluth Commission Men Order All Grain Consigned to This Point.

A telegram was received on the Duluth board of trade today announcing that the state board of railway and warehouse commissioners has decided to withdraw the Minnesota inspectors from the Superior elevators on Aug. 12. The Superior board of trade has not directed the withdrawal of inspection until Aug. 31, but the commissioners feel that, as there is no business to speak of between Aug. 12 and 31, it would only be an expense to keep the inspectors over there.

Last evening the Superior board of trade met and voted 38 to 7 to throw out the Minnesota inspection and establish Wisconsin inspection in its place. Mr. and Mrs. S. Blasberg left for their future home at Minneapolis yesterday on the St. Paul & Duluth. About seventy-five friends and relatives saw them to the train.

J. E. Hull, of St. Paul, traveling passenger agent of the Lake Shore road, is in the city.

W. H. Crandall, of St. Paul, is here today.

H. P. Hubbell, of Winona, the insurance man, is in the city.

Mrs. H. M. Little, Miss T. E. Bacon, and C. B. Little, of Cleveland, and Mrs. A. T. Ready, of Mt. Vernon, O., were at the Spalding today.

James D. Armstrong, solicitor of the St. Paul & Duluth road, came up from St. Paul today.

R. I. Farrington, of St. Paul, is in the city.

H. H. Kenkel came up from Minneapolis last night.

M. D. Kelly, roadmaster of the St. Paul & Duluth road, came up from St. Paul last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moon, of Marquette, were at the Spalding yesterday.

Mrs. S. J. Wentworth and daughter and son arrived yesterday from Buffalo and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Toucy.

C. C. McCarthy, of Grand Rapids, is in the city.

Mrs. J. M. Schloss and Miss Windmiller, of Chicago, are at the St. Louis.

Misses Kate Brode, Lena Pier and Mable Brown, of Dubuque, Iowa, are guests of Mrs. W. R. Eichman, of 1121 East Third street.

C. S. Parson left today for a visit to his old home at Buffalo.

J. D. Omdt came up from St. Paul last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Longyear, of Hibbing, were in the city last evening.

Governor David M. Clough and Mrs. Clough, Mrs. P. C. Burrows, Earl Burrows and Mrs. H. H. Hartley came up from Minneapolis yesterday. Mr. Burrows came up today, and the party left on the North West for a trip down the lakes.

Robert G. Flinn, of St. Paul, accompanied by E. C. Tupper, who is engaged in the banking business, arrived in Duluth last evening.

PERSONALS.

The following appeared in the News Tribune this morning, as a "special" dispatch to that paper:

"Little Falls, Aug. 3.—Judge Fage Morris spoke here tonight. Long before the hour set for the meeting the teams of the farmers from the surrounding country commenced coming into town, loaded down to the guards. At the hall, standing room was at a premium early in the evening and scores of people returned to their homes disappointed at not being able to listen to the eloquent address of the congressional candidate. Judge Morris was received with the utmost enthusiasm and after the meeting he renewed his acquaintance with hundreds of the voters, to whom he is by no means a stranger, having visited this town several times during former campaigns.

"There is not one word of truth in the above—not anything which approaches the truth. The News Tribune never received such a dispatch from Little Falls. It is a 'fake' written in the News Tribune office.

"The Duluth representatives of the Superior elevators say that the houses will probably be closed over there on Aug. 12, the date of the smaller vote in favor of the Minnesota inspection over that of the Duluth inspection. All the Duluth commission men who have been shipping their grain through Superior elevators today informed the people in the West to consign it to Duluth after Aug. 12, it is believed here that the smaller vote expected this year the Duluth system will be able to handle the entire crop.

The railroads are all in good shape to stand the change except the Great Northern, which has no yards in Duluth where the grain can be inspected at Sandstone, but that will occasion considerable bother and the grain will have to be shipped to Duluth then. It cannot be inspected at Sandstone and stored in Superior elevators because it must be weighed and checked out of the elevators by Minnesota inspectors in order to have the Minnesota inspection. There is scarcely a bushel of grain now going to the Superior elevators that is not dispossessed of in Duluth, and the men here can do with it as they choose.

It is quite probable that when James J. Hill finds the position in which the Superior board has placed his road he may take some retaliatory measures which will harm the Superior more than the transaction of the grain business in Duluth ever did.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

A meeting for permanent organization will be held

Every young man is invited to come and bring his friends.
Good speakers will be in attendance.

The Standing Committees.

President T. W. Hugo of the school board has announced the following committees:

Executive committee—T. W. Hugo, J. J. LeTourneau, F. W. Palmer, D. H. Pearson, H. H. Hanford, E. R. Cobb, Finance and accounts—F. C. Bowman, J. R. Brearley, J. J. LeTourneau, Schools and teachers—F. Pearson.

City Band Will Go.

The Duluth City band has been honored with a selection as one of the bands which will play at St. Paul during the first week in September, the week of the national G. A. R. encampment. In the great parade there will be no bands. The Duluth band is one of the few to be engaged to play during the entire week. The entire band of twenty-five pieces is engaged.

MANAGER PLOUGH HERE.

Was the Only Railroad Man at the Conference.

The council conference committee on the Canadian exiles visited matter at around this morning, waiting for the representatives of the Northern Pacific and the Duluth Transfer Railway companies. The St. Paul & Duluth was represented by General Manager Plough, who had come up from St. Paul accompanied by counsel. The others failed to appear. No communication was sent on behalf of either of the absentee roads explaining why there was no attendance in their behalf. J. L. Washburn, who it was expected, would appear for the Duluth Transfer Railway company, is in Chicago it was learned.

It was agreed by the committee, General Manager Plough approving the idea, to direct the city engineer to prepare estimates of the proportion of the cost to be borne by each of the roads interested, and to submit the estimates to them at a meeting to be called for that purpose. City Engineer Patton will commence work on the estimates at once.

Judge Morris Not at Little Falls Last Night.

The following appeared in the News Tribune this morning, as a "special" dispatch to that paper:

"Little Falls, Aug. 3.—Judge Fage Morris spoke here tonight. ### Found Nothing Wrong.

Attorney Theodore Lozier, of New York, who has been here for some days to view the records of the water bond election in behalf of the Edward C. Jones company, the successful bidder on the $1,000,000 issue, left for the East on the steamer North West this afternoon. Mr. Lozier says he found nothing on which to base a claim of invalidity of the election. He will make a report to Messrs. Dillon & Hubbard, who are passing on the issue, and it is expected the opinion of the latter will be forthcoming very soon, and, from information received, that it will be favorable.

Has New Assistants.

About three weeks ago Local Forester Official James Kenaly was informed that he would be allowed a second assistant, and he received notice that R. Q. Grant, of Pittsburgh, will be the man. He will come within a few days. Mr. Kenaly, who succeeded G. W. Eddy as assistant, arrived from Minneapolis yesterday.

GREAT ALTERATION SALE!

THE PICK IS WORTH SOMETHING.

True it is our stocks are heavy and extensive, but if yesterday and today's rush keeps up—and there are powerful reasons for it to keep up—there will be large inroads made in every line of the choicest wares. The opportunities are rare where one dollar will do the work of two. Why not avail yourself of this one, where, in many instances the prices have been cut clearly into half. New and different bargains will be spread out every day as fast as we shall gain the room for them.

We call special attention of economical buyers to the large number of Dress Goods Remnants in wool and cotton at--

HALF PRICE!

There is nothing wrong with them, the last piece of the bolt of goods is just as good and cost as much to make as the first cut, but our large season's trade accumulated a big quantity of them. Buyers will reap the benefit now, they all go at Half.

Millinery at Half Price.
Lace Remnants at Half Price.

Ladies' Spring Jackets and Capes at Half Price.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's Tan Shoes Cut In Half. Bargains in Linens. Bargains in Notions. Bargains Draperies and Carpets.

This wonderful cheap selling won't last forever, but as long as it will last it will grow mighty from day to day—the longer it will last the more and better will it be known, and the more known so much larger the crowds.

Don't postpone, don't delay, but get the first pick, get the first choice, it is always the cream. Mail orders for bargains filled as long as the goods hold out, but no special sale goods sent on approval.

FREMUTH'S

BIMETALLISM DEFINED.
Mr. Day Makes His Definition More Specific.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Few things are more difficult than to accurately define a term; words grow with use. They are used so loosely that many have a score of meanings. For instance, every economist has his own view and clearly sets out the confusion some say it is incapable of definition, so others are its many meanings. I think it is Professor Tausig who discusses to some extent the definitions of bimetalism as a definition in being more specific. I think it will meet the views of most bimetalists. The coinage must be unlimited and free, as otherwise the law of supply and demand in maintaining a parity would be defeated, and if bimetalism is permitted between the two coins as under the present laws, then again parity might not be maintained.

It is the state of the law that we aim at, claiming that the effect will be a natural concurrent circulation as opposed to the present forced concurrent circulation. I must therefore still insist that Mr. Hopkins is wrong when he says in bimetalism merely the concurrent circulation of two money metals. If he is right, then he has claimed too little, for we have not bimetalism, but quadrimetallism, since we maintain in concurrent circulation four metals—gold, silver, nickel and bronze. Let us see if Mr. Hopkins will be still bolder yet and claim that we have quadrimetallism.
